CHAIRMAN TONY AND MRS McSWEENEY WITH
SIR CLYDE AND LADY KENNEDY. BELOW IS THE SCENE OF THE DELIGHTFUL SYDNEY CUP
DINNER AT TATTERSALL'S.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

I wish to record my thanks to all members for my election to the honoured and prestigious position of chairman of Tattersall's Club of which I am very proud.

I would also like to extend a sincere welcome to our new committeeman, John Hoyle. John is a practising solicitor and I know is very keen to work on behalf of our Club members.

In this my first message I want to emphasise the importance of supporting our Club by continual usage by members.

Our dining room is open for lunch from 12 noon, dinner is served from 6.00 pm for the benefit of theatre parties and those with early evening engagements and your new maitre d' is Adrian Duani (late of the Normandie Restaurant which in its hey-day was the finest in Sydney), who has been with us for 13 years. Members and their guests will always be sure of a gracious welcome from Adrian who can best be described as "the man with the smiling eyes".

We have just purchased a carvery for the dining room which will enhance the already first-class services. If you have not used the dining room for a while please give it a try, you will be surprised by the prices which we have managed to keep to a minimum and the excellent wine list available.

A quick businessman's lunch is served on the second floor commencing at 12 noon. Without fear of contradiction, I consider that the meal and its cost is the best value in Sydney.

In addition to the above, those who enjoy a swim and the gymnasium facilities are provided with a health lunch seated around the side of the pool.

We are also privileged to have three areas in the Club namely the second floor Function Room, the lower ground floor Sportsman's Room and the beautiful first floor Club Room which are available to members and their guests for private functions. We can cater from between 10 to 280 people for functions including lunches, dinners, cocktail parties, receptions, meetings, conferences, wedding receptions, twenty-first birthday celebrations, etc and enquiries are welcome at the general office. Not only are the facilities first class, but there is the all-important ingredient of staff who are willing to go the extra step to turn a nice occasion into a resounding success for the host. Added to this is the artistry of our new chef, John McMenamin.

Your committee recently held a luncheon for members of 50 years standing (ie for members who joined the Club before March 1, 1954). The guests were Messrs Nicholas Aboud, OBE, Leonard Plasto, Raymond Tobias and Dr Bernard Riley. Regrettably Mr George Tosi was unable to be with us.

A cocktail party has also been held for our members who have completed 35 years of membership and who now join our senior members' list.

I am sure you will all join with me in congratulating and offering best wishes to both of these groups of members.

I recently accompanied colourful Club member Tom Powell to St Vincent's Hospital, assisted with his admission and took him to his room, and on returning to the nurse's station was politely asked if I was "Mr Powell's father?" Those of you who know 89 year-old Tom will appreciate the effect this had on me! As I have always said, no good turn ever goes unpunished.

I am always happy to hear from members who have suggestions for the benefit of the Club, and look forward to the opportunity to meet those members with whom I have not had the pleasure.

The strength of our Club lies in its members and their patronage of its facilities, and the maintaining of our motto, Honour and Friendship.

SPORTING POLL FINDS GREATEST POST-WAR CHAMPION

Tattersall's Club has housed (and still does), many of the outstanding sporting personalities and many have achieved world fame.

Committeeman Norman Rogers conducted a sporting poll within the Club from 100 selected sportsmen, voting on whom they considered to be the greatest post-war international sportsman.

Ninety-nine votes were collected and the winner was Mohammad Ali with 19, followed by Dawn Fraser with 11, equal third were Jack Nicklaus and Rod Laver with 10 each, fifth was Heather Mackay with nine and Mark Spitz was sixth with eight.

Others who received votes were:— Bill Johnson, Ken Rosewall, Herb Elliot, Al Oarter, Abebe Bikila, Bob Beamon, Sir Donald Campbell, Archie Moore, John Bertrand, Walter Lindrum, Bjorn Borg, Roger Bannister, Murray Rose, Pele, "Sugar" Ray Robinson, Robert Mathias, Rafer Johnson, Fanny Blankers-Koen and Betty Cuthbert.

A really magnificent array of great athletes.

BOND MAKES THEM BUY MORE!

Tattersall's member Ian Kennedy, marketing director, Bond International, had a remarkable success with a television advertisement. It urged viewers to ring up and order a certain kind of kitchen knife set for $19.95. All hell broke loose — the first day the response and volume of phone calls "blew out" Glebe and Mona Vale exchanges. Bonds couldn't kill the commercial for a few days. Which goes to show the unbelievable effect of motivating thousands of people.

Congratulations Ian.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE!

In a top Sydney club (as one of our Sunday newspaper columnists often observes), a sedate family dinner was in progress. Staff attention was spot on — including finger bowls. The mud crabs and prawns were getting the treatment.

To mum's horror young Henry had taken one of the bowls and was glugging away quenching his thirst — not spilling a drop!

HIS AND HER RIGHT UPDATE

The other day I was concerned about a quotation so I fixed it up to suit both sides.

Every woman (or man) has the right to his (or her) opinion — but no man (or woman) has the right to be wrong about his (or her) facts!

CALLING ALL SPORTSMEN!

I applaud the idea of an annual Sportsman of the Year Award. The outstanding sportsman's name is announced at a special Club luncheon. It's a keenly sought-after honour and a prestigious recognition. We have a wide and talented sporting membership. It provides keen competition.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS LET US REJOICE

No doubt soap opera publicists would have been pleased if the controversial Advance Australia Fair song had been changed to "Australian Sons and Daughters let us rejoice".

SECOND FLOOR WELCOME

I enjoyed a Tattersall's Club second floor buffet lunch — it's such a friendly place — and great value. The very pleasant staff work like busy beavers. Of course there's a bar and drink stewards to look after you — long before the .05 count starts.

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

Tattersall's Club rings with a KOORA-NA-BOON!

They met in the Sportsman's Room. I've been long interested in the unheralded work this Club does to sponsor young singers and help young artists to achieve a start on the long road to success. I attended a cartoonist night and took part in the proceedings. It was a fun night with top Sydney newspaper artists demonstrating skills. Tattersall's Club member Dr Fuzz Porter gave the gathering one of the most interesting and detailed life story of a brilliant young Australian doctor. The medico, Dr Turner's short life was star studded in every department. Dr Turner was a school product of Albury coming to Fort Street, Sydney and then university. His short and outstanding medical career came to an untimely end at 26 years of age. "Fuzz" certainly deserved the tribe's KOOR-NA-BOON they gave him to say thanks for his excellent presentation. Tattersall's Club members present included Jim Russell and Stan Pitkethley. Ed.

Terry and Barbara Power were in the Club to celebrate the 25th wedding anniversary of their very good friends and travelling companions Marcia and John Simmons.

Terry is a very busy and competent executive in show business. It was a really happy way to relax at Tattersall's on this pleasant evening.

Member Len Robertson chose Tattersall's as the place to celebrate his daughter Melissa's thirteenth birthday. She had a very enjoyable evening with all the Tattersall's trimmings and dad was very proud, too.

Stock and share broker and Tattersall's member Stephen Brown is excited about the prospects of a good-looking, two year-old colt "Son of a Gun", and a filly by Sir Silver Lad. Like most owners — hope springs eternal. We wish you great success, Stephen. Ed.

The very talented and personable Club member Greg Coote recently moved out of executive directorship of Channel 10.

Greg lifted the channel to the top ratings from a lagging position in previous years. He's formed a consultancy with Matt Carroll, executive producer, network production from Channel 10.

I've been associated with Greg from first working years, his place at the top is richly deserved, and I am sure his expertise will carry him to greater success. Ed.

Tattersall's member Greg Williams, Rebel Air executive, is pleased with the gaining of support for the use of company aircraft for sportsmen's visits. This snap was taken at a Wellington Boot Race meeting attended by Tattersall's Club on a chartered flight.

Very pleasant member Arthur Dyster enjoyed his Saturday evening dinner at Tattersall's. It was a party to celebrate the visit to Sydney of Mr Gil Nyeman and Miss Susan Corcoran (father-in-law and neice respectively). Arthur's delightful wife Beverley, and sons Jon, Andrew and Rohan made it a very happy family evening. There is no better place than Tattersall's for such occasions.

Smiling member Bruce Upcroft, very active in the athletic section and Club supporter of Tattersall's. A busy banker who finds time to relax and keep himself fit. We need more members like Bruce.

Member Kel Bailie who is a long-time member of Tattersall's availed himself of the opportunity to invite two old friends, two ship's captains, to a Tattersall's dinner. They were junior officers in the Orient line, when they met some 35 years ago. They are seldom in Sydney at the same time. Present were Dennis Carol (captain of Amanda Miller) with Mrs Carol and Peter Leighton, captain of ACTS. It was a very happy night "aboard at Tattersall's".

Tattersall's dining room was the happy scene for Dr David Lane, senator from Fort Lauderdale and Mrs Ernette Haring, who met for the first time in 29 years. They met Frank and Denise Starr in London in the 50's. Father Dennis Madigan who visited four years ago was also present. Frank Starr was ecstatic about the oysters and beef — he said the wine was outstanding too. too".

Member Ray Koval invited friends of his third son Paul to celebrate his 17th birthday. Three friends of Paul's who attended are students at Cranbrook were Andrew Klippel, James Packer and Toby Bickenell as well as members of Ray's family including his brothers Andrew and Matthew. Paul certainly enjoyed his 17th birthday at Tattersall's.

Member Reg Evans was seen enjoying the party he arranged at Tattersall's celebrating the birthday of Joan Thwaite who came from Blayney with husband Jack, daughter Christine, son-in-law Bob Hill and Bernice Evans. It was a very happy gathering at Tattersall's.

Member Nelson J. Kelloway found the ideal way to celebrate the 50th birthday of his son David — an evening at Tattersall's. The Kelloway family were present to share the joys of the evening. Family members included in addition to Nelson we found Peter and of course David — the birthday "boy". It was a very warm and friendly gathering to mark his 50th birthday.

Member Mr Lee Dunn was delighted to arrange a party to celebrate daughter Georgina's 11th birthday. Guests included Mrs Margaret Dunn, Sarah Dunn (12), Mr and Mrs Christopher Hanlon and daughter Nicole were in the happy family party, to. A birthday party for the young is something to remember — especially when it is so well catered for by a very attentive dining room staff.

Retired bookmaker member Bob Blann speaks with AJC committeeman Jack Ingham. Bookmaker Jack Muir listens intently — a friendly scene at Tattersall's.

A very pleasant lady Catherine, wife of committeeman John Hickey, arranged a happy evening for son Luke's 12th birthday. What better place than Tattersall's. The joyful guest students from St Aloysius College: Mark Houlahan, Bradley Frost, Adrian McEvoy and Gavin White, and from St Ignatius College, Riverview included Darrin Crichton-Browne, Gregory Easy and Christopher Dougall. Luke's sister Catherine was unable to attend as she was at a regatta party at Hunters Hill. It was a great evening for Luke and one he will remember. It's a splendid way to celebrate with friends and the night was memorable. Tattersall's committeeman father John Hickey with wife Catherine were so pleased to see Luke with his friends.

Doug Maclarn and wife Kate was to the fore in arranging a farewell to Bill and Flo Corke of London, UK. They were returning home from their third trip to Australia.

Also farewell to Ray and Pat Hillman of Wyong who shortly leave on a four months' trip to North Queensland. Also present were Ray and Pat's son Gary Hillman and wife Sharyn.

Cheerful member John Marshall from up Walgett way was the perfect host for a delightful Tattersall's dinner, celebrating their yearly get-together of family and friends. Sydney friends Mr and Mrs Evan Sperling and Mr and Mrs Colin Scofield were there in party with Mr and Mrs Reg Pike who made a surprise appearance. It was a very happy evening.

Mrs Marcelle Williams (wife of member David), staged a real family party at Tattersall's. There were eleven guests (six adults and five grand daughters). The occasion was the 65th birthday dinner for Donald Williams and the 40th birthday dinner for Susan Blakeney, daughter of Donald and Marcelle. Present were Susan and Michael Blakeney and four grand daughters (of Donald and Marcelle), Katrina, Fiona, Skye and Georgina. Son Gregory with Carmel Williams and grand daughter Louise (of Donald and Marcelle), made it a really great family party.

Bruce Neighbour, Alan Frankish and Owen Blinman were seen recently enjoying a very happy lunch in the dining room at Tattersall's. It's always a pleasure to see members really relaxed and making the most of our good Club. — Ed.

John Byron was so pleased to entertain his family on his birthday. His wife, two daughters and their friends joined in a very happy family evening at Tattersall's.

Member Keith Lonard and wife Jacqueline arranged a Tattersall's dinner party for the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Wrighter. Very happy guests included Mr and Mrs Lou Mayer, Mr Paul Wrighter and Mr A. Cleland. Keith and Jacqueline were so happy to have this happy party.

Member Dr Gavan Young and wife Judith had a party for their 31st wedding anniversary at Tattersall's. Good friends Mr and Mrs Ernie Nelson and Mr and Mrs Tony Gallizzo helped them have a special celebration evening.

Member Alf Clifton with his wife and daughter Lyndal entertained Mr and Mrs John Coble with daughter Cherie. They selected Tattersall's for their three-monthly get-together. They had a wonderful time and look forward to their next quarterly evening at Tattersall's.

New committeeman John Roscoe Hoyle at forty-three years of age is a solicitor and senior partner in his firm Roscoe W.G. Hoyle & Co.

His sporting activities through the years (schooling at Barker College) is worth noting. Played cricket and rugby with University and Gordon first-grade level.

John is still active in sport and plays cricket with the very fine club I Zingari. Member of Sydney Central Lions Club (they meet at Tattersall's). He is a long-standing member of Newcastle Jockey Club. A bachelor and very regular in attendance at Tattersall's. John is interested in maintaining the identity, prestige and ideals of Tattersall's. "I believe we should strive to improve service to members and promote greater use of our excellent facilities," said the new committee member. Ed.

Skier Stephen Evans

There has never been a ski season so widely publicised as the lead up to the 1984 season. Its prospects received equal rating with economic matters during a political conference at Thredbo, when the first of the season's snow appeared. "If Bob broke the drought, then Andrew brought the snow."

After two poor years, skiers are entitled to expect a good year in 1984. As many old hands point out, Olympic years have been good years. A search of snowfall graphs shows there is a lot of truth in the Olympic year theory.

Development at New South Wales resorts during the off season has been in marketing rather than equipment, though both Perisher and Thredbo have cleared rocks and boulders from ski runs. The main marketing effort was at Thredbo where they have established numerous initiatives to make the lot of the skier easier. The most obvious initiative is to hold day ticket prices to the 1982 level of $23.00 per day and raise the age for a child from 12 to 14 years. In fact, Thredbo have been so successful in attracting visitors that on Easter Sunday, before any snowfall, there was a 25 minute wait at the Crackenback chairlift for sight-seers visiting Crackenback or the Kosciusko summit. On the other side of the mountain Perisher Valley was very quiet.

Tattersall's skiers have shown record interest in the two outings planned for this year. The first is the family week at Roslyn Lodge, Thredbo, from Saturday, June 30. The Lodge has been fully booked and a waiting list established. The group are a good blend of Roslyn regulars and new Ski Club members. Those making up the party are — Mr and Mrs E. Rosen and guest; Mr and Mrs A. Reed and children; Mr and Mrs B. McFadyen and children; Mr and Mrs R. McPhail and children; Mr and Mrs P. Burrows; Mr and Mrs I. Connell and children; Mr and Mrs R. Wang and guests; Mr and Mrs M. Hickey; Mr and Mrs M. Stening and daughter; Mr and Mrs M. Darling and children, as guests of the Reeds. Regulars, Dr Nicholas and Susan Packham are not skiing this year, but we have ordered an additional cot to accommodate them next year.

This intrepid band of gourmet skiers are being led by Peter Magnus, who is lodge captain, assisted by his wife Deirdre and son Noel and friend. The Lodge managers, Leslie and Rob White, provide a wonderful service to Tattersall's skiers and 1984 could be the best year yet.

The week commencing Saturday, July 14, is the commencement of the Men's Week at Wurruna Lodge in Perisher Valley. If the Thredbo group are gourmet skiers, then the Wurruna chaps are skiing gourmets. The lodge captain is Ski Club secretary, Anthony Berkman, who is sure to have his hands full. The catering is under the command of master chefs, Basil Phillips, fresh from his golf win, and George Andrews, paying a brief visit to Australia especially to join the group.

Others who are reported to have gone into training to cope with the week are — Mat Gunning, John Reid, Phil King and Mike O'Dea, making a comeback, Rus Debney, Bill Debney, John Cope, Dick Small, Mat Saunders, Graham Smith, who is also returning to Australia briefly, Bruce Cormac, Rob Wensley and John Porter from Brisbane, David Madden from Melbourne and Messrs Fisher, Leece and Wade. Charlie Coppa also makes a welcome return to the Tattersall's ski crowd.

In addition to those going to Roslyn and Wurruna, Tattersall's members, Juris Ozols and his wife Liz and Peter Evans and wife Shirley and daughter Belinda, are skiing at the same time from their own respective lodges, Geebung and Avalanche.

Tattersall's skiers have enjoyed themselves during the years of good and poor snow conditions; with the prospect of an outstanding snow year, our skiers are set for the best year yet.

PLENTY OF ACTION IN SWIM RACES

As we go to press — John Ward is still well out in front in "Tony" McSweeney's Silver Sharpe Trophy and barring accidents looks to having it all sewn up. John is regular in his attendance and if he can manage holding his present handicap, will certainly be hard to catch.

The excitement at the moment is the titanic struggle for the minor placings between Rick Glover, John Nicholas, Gordon Salier, Alec McLelland, Michael McCormack and Gary Wilson all within a few points of each other.

Johnny (Czar) Nicholas is hanging to the lead in Tom Powell's Trophy for individual wins from John Barrell, John Keating, Rick Glover, Tony King, Max Ryan and Gordon Salier all within striking distance.

Russell and Bill Debney head the score in the Jack Mandel Family Event, but absentee partners are causing several scratchings of pairs.

The Hillston 80yds Hcp has Michael McCormack leading from Tony King with Rick Glover, John Nicholas and David Robinson close handy.

The Godhard-Ranger Trophy is still open with Mike McCormack, Andrew Barrell, Tony King, Rick Glover, David Robinson and Gary Wilson staging a dour neck-to-neck struggle.

Outstanding performances by Mike McCormack, Andrew Barrell and John

Barker highlighted the month's activities, together with clipped finger-nail finishes afforded the many spectators with thrills galore.

Phillip King honoured us with his presence partnering brother Tony in the Family Event. Keep coming Phillip we like your smile and style.

Fastest times recorded were R. Debney 19.2, H. Keller 19.8 and 20, J. Barrell 20.2 and 20.4, Andrew Isles 20.4, M. McCormack 20.4, J. Nicholas 20.5.

HISTORY OF HANDBALL IN TATTERSALL'S CLUB

Handball is one of the earliest-known, outdoor games in existence.

The one-wall game was played in the early Roman era, where it was known for its fine spirit of sportsmanship and has been almost the national sport of Ireland where it has been played for many centuries.

It has always been popular in Australia with championships dating from captain, A.S. Block, honorary secretary Reg Chappell, Frank Caldwell of Bondi, Minister for Energy, began in 1912.

A chance visit to Giles Baths at Coogee was my first sight of a three-wall indoor court played with a rather large, soft ball.

The outdoor game produced many champions among whom were Paul Fallon, George Macris and Con Hannan, a brother of W. (Bill) Hannan of Tattersall's.

In 1919 when training with several American boxers, we played a one-wall game at the Domain Baths in the Albatross and Shiverers Club.

In 1930 Tattersall's Handball Club came into being through the enthusiastic efforts of a young and energetic AJC bookmaker named Alf Bloomfield.

Alf, who was a member of the Albatross Club persuaded John Dunningham, Tattersall's treasurer, with the idea of having the gymnasium altered into handball courts. An exhibition game was played for John's benefit. He was so impressed with the skill displayed and, I would imagine of the status of the participants, amongst whom were Sir Herbert Maitland, Arnold Moate, Charlie McLeod, Colonel Edwin and Norman Penfold, Leslie Herron, Warwick Gregory and Brigadier T.A.J. Playfair that he assured Alf he would use every endeavour to have the courts installed.

Yours truly was one of the first members of the Albatross Club to join Tattersall's in 1931, being followed by W.A. Tebbutt, Brigadier Playfair, Warwick Gregory, Col Edwin and Norman Penfold.

The year 1931 saw Tattersall's first handball championship final played between Tony McGill and Alf Bloomfield, the latter being the victor by two out of three 31 up. Thus Alf Bloomfield became the first champion handballer of Tattersall's Club.

Other stars of that era were Tom McMahon, Charlie McLeod and W.W. (Billy) Hill.

A handball committee was formed in late 1931 with S.G. (Billy) Williams as captain, A.S. Black, honorary secretary and tournaments have been successfully held ever since, with the exception of the war years.

On August 3, 1936, in the presence of representatives from all metropolitan clubs, the NSW Indoor Handball Association was formed with myself as the honorary executive officer. The rules were revised and adopted by all the delegates present.

In 1958 Peter Lindsay took over the reins of office with Arthur McCauley and myself as the committee. Peter continued with his good work until 1961 when Norman Rogers took over the arduous duties which he has carried out so efficiently over the years.

Few members realise how popular handball is in the Club, but to mention that over ninety competitors participate in the luncheon competition under the capable administration of the present honorary secretary, Peter Ashby, only goes to prove the attractions of the game.

The game has produced many fine exponents of the art, some fearless and dynamic, others sure and purposeful, whilst many are dour and relentless.

In ranking the many champions of the various clubs (each in his hey-day), during my 50 years of office, 40 of which I have occupied the position of handicapper, my nominations for the best players are W.A. Tebbutt, Frank Frankowski of Coogee — the most dynamic, Bruce Galea — relentless and sure, Michael O'Dea — definitely the most dour and purposeful.

Many others come to mind in Eddie Davis, Norman, Ron and Neil Rogers, Gary Stubbs, Peter Gleeson, all of Clovelly Club, Steve Nolan, Peter Lund, OReg Chappell, Frank Caldwell of Bondi, Bill Harrison and Jim Campbell of Coogee, Noel Vella of Bondi Icebergs, who has won the last two Tattersall's Plates, Bruce Partridge, George McGilvray, Bob Lipman, Zade Lararus and "The Shiverers" George McCoy, Perc Russell and legless Billy Morris were a force to be reckoned with at all times.

— SAM BLOCK

Handball Club Championships

BY PETER ASHBY

No handballing sportsman of the Tattersall's vintage can claim not to have had sufficient warning about matches in the "A", "B" and "C" grade singles championships.

The tournament committee was hopeful that an early flurry of matches would precipitate the emergence of a champion in each grade.

Ever sanguine, that same gathering of organisers promulgated the draws and then waited, ever so patiently, for resulting action on the courts.

Sadly the time has come for prompting. The next step required to achieve a result has yet to be decided. Discussions on this matter have commenced and are continuing and even allowing for the number of the legal profession on that same committee the discussions will be completed before the items of the first part.

STATE SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

Unfortunate delays in the early rounds and then in the semi-finals precluded a decision in this tournament to date.

One semi-final between Ron Rogers of Tattersall's Club and Frank Caldwell of Bondi remains to be played and the winner is to oppose Neil Rogers, current singles champion of Tattersall's.

HANDBALLS

These important necessities for a pleasant hour or so of exercise on the famous courts at Tattersall's Club are still in short supply.

One wonders just how much punishment Ken Glass's prized and pampered pill will persist in providing pleasure for perspiring participants by pulverisation.

Some players claim the ball is educated but having been in service for so long no wonder a father-son relationship has developed. I can answer all those critics' snide remarks with the assurance that Ken does not intend to enrol it for entry to Sydney Grammar for further education.

For those of our members who enjoy no such possession, whether proudly or pusillanimously, please be prepared to remove the outer skin of a tennis ball.

Rubbing on sandstone is the quickest method to achieve a smooth ball without excessive bounce.

A quick soak in petrol or turps is a faster method but oversozing may affect the core. If this occurs discard the object of your labours and attack another ball. The damaged item you will find bounces unevenly, a characteristic never likely to improve one's game. Good Handballing!

TATTERSALL'S CLUB BLACK

Brilliant racing colours of Tattersall's horse owners ringed the room on the first floor. The scene was the 1984 Tattersall's Club Black Tie Sydney Cup Dinner.

The guest of honour was Sir Clyde Kennedy, MBE. It was a fitting recognition of Sir Clyde's service to racing. In particular as chairman of the Sydney Turf Club — his contribution was outstanding.

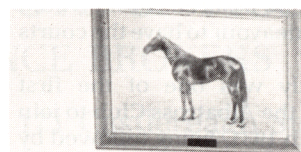

Delightful Lady Kennedy accompanied him — she is a gracious, warm-hearted person and loved by all.

It was Tony McSweeney's first official function on his appointment as chairman of Tattersall's Club. Tony's charming wife Mollie looked radiant at the main table. Included were deputy chairman of the AJC, Mr Alec Rofe and Mrs Rofe, Jim Fleming, chairman of the STC and Mrs Fleming, City Tattersall's chairman Mr Laurie Taylor and Mrs Taylor, committeeman Norman Rogers, who heads the racing committee for Tattersall's, was in a jovial mood as he introduced speakers.

Racing commentator Geoff Mahoney interviewed jockey Larry Olsen and proceeded to give a phantom broadcast of the cup.

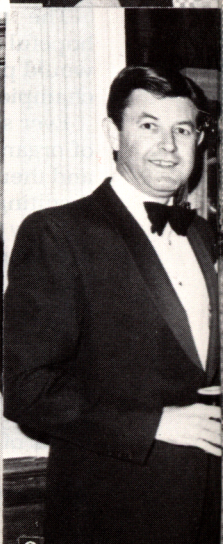

A lucky draw table for a runner in the cup was conducted. It created fun. The lucky winner was Mrs Colin Love. Each of the members of her table received a souvenir goblet. Mrs Love was to the fore at the recent Randwick Carnival where the fashion in the field parades added to the scene. She is to be congratulated.

Tattersall's chef presented an outstanding menu for this evening dinner. He is performing an excellent job in providing fine meals for Tattersall's members, and their guests.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER

SNOOKER TOURNAMENT 1984

by Doug Jordan

The annual Snooker Tournament of 1984 is now in full swing.

Your billiards and snooker sub-committee of which I am a member has worked very hard to make this tournament a success.

We are proud of the handicaps we have presented. This is evidenced by the lack of complaints.

The smorgasbord was a huge success. A good cross-section of members attended including many racing identities.

Eddie Charlton is again a competitor. He has been given five more being elevated from minus 45 to minus 40.

Some great trials have been registered. Peter Twigg is playing well, John Hawkins is a big tip. I am struggling to regain form, John Hoyle, Bob Lavigne, Digger Lobb, Ken McDonald, Len Williams and Doug Herps are all playing in great form. The man with the white whiskers (Stuart Adams) was beautifully handicapped. Unfortunately, George Mousally, one of our best snooker players and certainly our best billiards player, is not playing in our handicaps, but will be seen in the championships. George is 16 times billiards champ. Pretty good for a man in his eighties.

A mistake in our annual report under the heading of Club Championships 1983, should have read George Mousally, Billiards Champion and Len Williams, Snooker Champion.

Les and Herb Manglesdorf will again officiate as referees.

Syd Lane, our snooker and billiards secretary, who works tirelessly to organise all matches would appreciate co-operation from players to ensure the smooth running of the tournament.

VALE DAVID TARRANT

56 Years of
Tattersall's Club
Membership

Dave was born at Palmerston, New Zealand. His grandfather was David Buick, a relative of the family which originated the Buick car. Grand-dad represented Palmerston North in Parliament for ten years and was also owner and breeder of race horses. The late George Price was one of his apprentice jockeys.

Double Bay was Dave's school and he was a playmate with those famous rugby league internationals, Dally Messenger and Dan Frawley. Also there was Ted Davis, later to become a rails bookmaker and then a brilliant scholar, athlete and cricketer.

Dave played with Eastern Suburbs Junior Rugby League in 1913-14, and still had his 1913 rugby league badge.

Off to the 1914-18 war as a sergeant in the 1st Battalion. He says that his mates at the annual reunions proudly claim — 1st Battalion, 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 1st AIF and 2nd to none.

Dave also served in the 1939-45 war for four years with the rank of lieutenant.

On his return to civilian life in 1919 he entered the import/export trade, but the depression came Sydney way in 1928 and Dave went to Western Australia. There he raced trotters but in 1932 was back in Sydney. He became an overseas buyer for one of Australia's biggest chain stores for five years.

In 1937 he again branched out on his own until his retirement in 1968.

Dave played bowls with Double Bay, was a vice-president with Rose Bay RSL, raced several horses with a particular fondness for Swiftfield (by Rush (Fr.) — Noefield).

Dave was extremely proud of his daughter, Mrs Paul Kelly (Paul is also a member) and his grand-daughters Jo-ann and Mary.

He was a great advocate for the Athletic Department on the third floor where he once won the Dewar Cup for swimming.

A member of the AJC and STC and a Tattersall's Club senior member of 56 years' membership.

DIGGER DAVE TARRANT

Sydney architect, the late Kenneth McConnel, served with Dave in the 1st Battalion AIF and wrote this note in "Reveille" in 1937.

"The right-hand man of No. 11 Section is Corporal Dave Tarrant. A pretty young-looking bloke you were, Dave, to have two stripes, but when Mills and Glover went sick you were the one we picked for the third stripe, and a dapper little platoon sergeant you made, too.

But why did you want to go and dive in between me and that Fritz who was drawing a bead on me as we jumped into O.G.1? You got your bayonet home all right, but his bullet tore through both your lungs and finished up in your guts.

That didn't stop you, either; you went and led the platoon on to the second objective before you tottered back and crumpled up in the same shell hole where I was nursing a broken shin. Well, you didn't let that bullet finish you, Dave, I saw your cheery grin only recently."

Dave carried the bullet all his life until his death in his 87th year. Ed.

COLIN TIDY — A BOOKMAKER FOR ALL COURSES!

You'll find Col on the rails at all city and provincial courses. He regards the out-of-town meetings as a plus to catch the form of the horses likely to perform well in the city. He has been bookmaking for only three years. Col was a substantial punter prior to joining the ranks of "bookies". He owns gallopers, Spot of Bother, in partnership with Angus Amanasco and Bulgecroc with Doug Gladman. A keen tennis player who plays every Friday with race journalists and friends Ken Callender, John Holloway, Mick Conkers and Geoff Gabb. He regards it as good exercise. A keen VFL man and hasn't missed a Swan's match in Sydney. Col contends provincials are the real backbone of the racing industry and gives them his full support. Wife Helen and eleven year-old son Robert (who attends Waverley College) enjoy a close and happy family relationship. So members are invited to introduce themselves to Col at any of the courses — he goes everywhere!
